Nickelodeon

Burt Reynolds, Ryan and Tatum O'Neal star as a hapless, hilarious crew of novice actors and their shaky director who venture into filmmaking during the long-gone silent days. Peter Bogdanovich (Paper Moon) directed this warm look at a slap-dash film company making nothing but slapstick. It's a heaping helping of movie nostalgia. Mild language. (PG-2:02) May 1,4,6,12,31

AAU Boxing Finals

Grab a ringside seat for the finals of the Inter-City Boxing Championships as top amateur teams slug it out for the crown. It's an exciting conclusion to seven weeks of hard-fought matches. From Madison Square Garden. May 2,5

Music Then and Now

Catch The Association, Patti Page, Jimmy Rodgers and other great singing stars of the '50s and '60s. Together they racked up 40 gold records! But that was then and this is now—and they're still making great music. May 1,4,9,12,15

Poco, Little Dog Lost

The adventures of a charming poolie pup lost in the California desert. Trying to find her way back home, Poco braves the elements, gunfire and irate farmers. And you'll cheer her all the way! Family Fare. (G-1:29) May 5,9,13,15

The Cheap Detective

Peter Falk parodies Humphrey Bogart in this send-up of The Maltese Falcon and other thrillers of the '30s and '40s. Ann-Margret, Marsha Mason and other famous molls give the place some class. Language. (PG-1:32) May 2,5

Gable and Lombard

Clark and Carole! They were two of Hollywood's greatest and most glamorous superstars! Jill Clayburgh (An Unmarried Woman) is perfect as dizzy commedienne Lombard. James Brolin (Marcus Welby) co-stars as Gable, "the King." "Stunning and smashing performance by Jill Clayburgh . . . What an actress!" (Variety) Adult situations, profanity. (R-2:11) May 3,6,19,24

Race for Your Life, Charlie Brown!

The whole "Peanuts" gallery jumps off the page and onto the screen for this delightful escapade. Charlie and the rest of the crew try to relax at summer camp—and end up screaming and careening down some raging rapids on a raft. But the ever cool Snoopy has a lifesaver of a scheme. Good grief, what excitement! Family fare. (G-1:15) May 7,20

Walt Disney

The Love Bug

Herbie, a speedy little foreign auto with a precocious personality, picks former stock car driver Dean Jones as his new master. Then it's off to the races as this unbeatable team embarks on a stupendous winning streak. Up and around hairpin turns, they find themselves being tailgated by a very annoyed villain and his whacky henchman. Michele Lee is the one who shifts Dean's gears, while Buddy Hackett plays his hilarious sidekick. "Engaging fantasy . . . a cutie." (Variety) Family fare. (G-1:47) May 4,7,10,13,19,23

Eyes of Laura Mars

Faye Dunaway

Psychological suspense and the exotic world of high fashion in an offbeat thriller! Faye Dunaway, lonely and vulnerable behind her chic facade as a top photographer, becomes the focal point of a series of violent murders. Tommy Lee Jones is the down-to-earth cop on the case. A dazzling whodunit. "Superlative casting . . . spectacular settings." (N.Y. Times) Nudity, profanity, violence. (R-1:43) May 6,10,14,18,23,26

(Independent Film Journal) Profanity, violence. (PG-1:39) May 8,12,18,21,24

Standing Room Only:

PSYCHIC FOLLIES

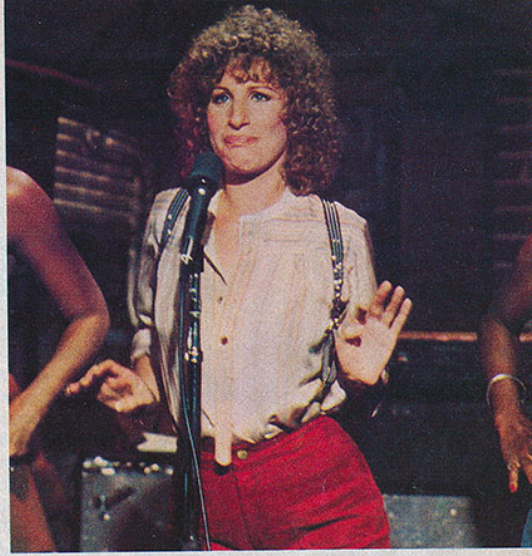

A mind-boggling gathering of hypnotists, mentalists and other psychic entertainers

Bill Bixby (The Incredible Hulk) hosts this HBO first—featuring the top mind masters in the world! They'll dazzle you as they move in their mysterious ways (some of their feats have never before been allowed on regular TV programming). It's eerie. It's puzzling. It's entertaining. It's hypnotic! (You'll be under the spell.)
May 13,17,22,25,28,30

A Star is Born

Barbra Streisand
Kris Kristofferson

Two of Hollywood's most popular personalities ignite this compelling film. Barbra Streisand is a superstar rising to the top of the rock charts while husband-discoverer Kris Kristofferson sinks toward oblivion. This sensual, high-powered love story is played against a great musical score by Barbra herself and Paul Williams ("Evergreen" won both an Oscar and a Grammy). "Terrific" (Variety) Adult situations, brief nudity, profanity. (R-2:20)

Joe Don Baker

Phoenix is under a strange kind of siege: a clever, unstoppable thief snatching luxury automobiles, even police cars, is on the loose. Both Joe Don Baker (Walking Tall) and perky police woman Tyne Daly want to revoke his license—permanently. The hard-driving team tracks down much more than the mysterious thief. Spectacular stunts and chases. Profanity. (PG-1:38)
May 12,17,21,27

James Drake/SI

The Olympiad

Updated exclusively for HBO, this Emmy-Award winning series took 3½ years and four million feet of vintage Olympic Games footage to produce. Track giant Jesse Owens hosts the 10-part series.

The Marathon offers rare footage from the 1908 Olympics and includes a study of Abebe Bikila, Ethiopia's barefoot gold medalist in 1960 and 1964. May 10,13

The Decathlon is a poignant look at this gruelling event. This program relives the triumphs of Americans from Jim Thorpe to Bruce Jenner. May 17,21

Women Who Won the Gold focuses on outstanding female competitors, like Wilma Rudolph, who overcame polio and became an Olympic champion. May 24,28

The Big Ones That Got Away analyzes photo finishes and controversial endings, among them the last-second win by the Soviet basketball team over the U.S. May 31

The Outlaw Josey Wales

Clint Eastwood heads west as a farmer-turned-outlaw bent on revenge. Plenty of action, gunfights, shootouts in blazing Eastwood style. Western violence, rape, brief nudity. (PG-2:16) May 14,16,18

The Other Side of Midnight

A tale of grand passions, power and revenge based on Sidney Sheldon's bestseller. Marie-France Pisier and John Beck co-star. Some nudity, strong sexual content (R-2:49) May 16,20,25

Women's Championship Gymnastics

On the beam, across the floor, around the uneven bars and through the air—America's women gymnasts have improved vastly in all areas. At the Dial National Invitational you'll see just why they're drawing raves from coaches around the world. May 15,18,19

What sings, plays the guitar and talks real funny? Martin Mull, of course. Catch the outrageous host of Fernwood 2-Night and America 2-Night in his first all-out TV special. He's sophisticated, irreverently funny—and totally irresistible! So don't mull it over, tune in for a very rare evening of first-rate comedy entertainment. May 5,9,13,17

The Greek Tycoon Jacqueline Bisset Anthony Quinn

He was peasant, pirate, shark. What he didn't buy with money, he stole with charm. Then he won the most famous woman in the world—widow of a U.S. President. Anthony Quinn is the golden Greek; Jacqueline Bisset, the former First Lady. "Thoroughly entertaining" (Chicago Tribune) Adult situations, language. (R-1:46) May 20,24,29

Richard Harris

Golden Rendezvous

HBO presents an American premiere! A suspenseful, nerve-tingling drama of hijacking on the high seas. This tale of piracy on a cargo ship/gambling casino bound for the Caribbean was written by the master of suspense Alistair MacLean (Guns of Navarone, Ice Station Zebra). Richard Harris stars as the ship's officer who suspects foul play. Fine performances also by Burgess Meredith, David Janssen, John Carradine and Ann Turkel. Some violence. (1:43) May 18,22,26,30

The Osmonds

It's the Osmonds all right, but this time in a slick, glittery nightclub act that has wowed audiences everywhere! They're doing things you've never seen them do on TV before. They're all there: Donny and Marie (yes, they sing On the Shelf), the Brothers and the rocking Resurrection Shuffle, and Jimmy, who leads the whole family in a smashing finale. It's another HBO presentation of a top nightclub show! May 19,23,28,31

Jonathan Winters' Salute to Baseball

HBO has corralled everyone's favorite zany—Jonathan Winters—in a dynamite tour de force. The tour introduces you to Jonathan as the team manager, umpire, pitcher, slugger, even the local mayor and loyal fan, Maude Frickett! It's fun for all (not just baseball fans)! May 21,24,27,29

Scalpel

Plastic surgery, murder and unique twists of plot make this a "don't miss" movie! Robert Lansing plays the doc who doctors the face of go-go dancer Judith Chapman —for more than money. Mild profanity, brief nudity, gore. (PG-1:35) May 2,6,10,14

Semi-Tough

Jill Clayburgh is the part lady, part street-kid whose father owns a pro football team. Burt Reynolds and Kris Kristofferson are the teammates she wants to play with—but not football! Lots of hilarious scores and passes. Profanity, brief nudity, adult humor. (R-1:47) May 6,11,13

The Way of the Wind

A millonaire jumps off the executive treadmill to fulfill his lifelong love affair with the sea. A true story of a 30,000-mile ocean odyssey—from the Pacific to the Bermuda Triangle to mysterious towns of ancient Greece. "Inspiring . . . a tribute to the spirit of adventure and independence." (L.A. Times) Family fare. (G-1:44) May 23,27

Wrestling: USA vs USSR

Amateur wrestling is a far cry—groan? —from pro wrestling. Instead of step-over toeholds and foot-in-the-back techniques, amateurs fill their fast-paced bouts with bar arms, duckunders and other nifty tactics. When America's fast-improving team faces the Russian champions, they hope to win for the first time ever. May 22,26

The Turning Point

Ballet superstar Mikhail Baryshnikov makes his screen debut in this fascinating "inside" story of the world of dance. Anne Bancroft and Shirley MacLaine (both Oscar nominees for their roles) co-star as rival ballerinas who chose different roads and have a critical reunion years later. Superb dance sequences. Adult situations, language. (PG-1:59) May 21,26,31

The End

Burt Reynolds

A medically doomed sharpie tries frantically to gain sympathy and find an easy way out—and provides lots of laughs along the way. Burt Reynolds directed himself, with an all-star cast swirling around him: Dom DeLuise, Joanne Woodward, Sally Field, Robby Benson, Norman Fell, Carl Reiner, David Steinberg—and Kristy McNichol (Family), who almost steals the show as Burt's loving daughter. "Crazy farce . . . You'll have some big laughs." (Gene Shalit) Adult situations, profanity. (R-1:39) May 27,31

All-Star Country Music Festival

Roy Clark
Tammy Wynette
Mel Tillis
The Oakridge Boys
Freddie Fender
Don Williams

It's country music time! HBO selected the best American performers at a recent world country musical marathon, and rounded them up for one gigantic show! The impressive group of favorites includes: the Oak Ridge Boys doing "You're the One," Freddie Fender, "Wasted Days and Wasted Nights," Roy Clark and "Jambalaya" plus Tammy Wynette, singing "D-I-V-O-R-C-E" (of course). May 25,29

The Hanging Tree

Gary Cooper

The Montana of the 1870s was teeming with miners, adventurers and just plain folk in search of new land and new freedom. Gary Cooper, a shy doctor with a mysterious past, befriends blind Maria Schell—and becomes a man of action on her behalf. It's Cooper at his best plus impressive performances by Karl Malden and George C. Scott. Adult situations, mild violence. (1:46) May 26,30

Lovers Like Us

Yves Montand Catherine Deneuve

Watch the fireworks explode when a bossy beauty disturbs the solitude of a bearded beachcomber on a tropical isle. Catherine Deneuve and Yves Montand co-star as the far-from-perfect couple in this winning romantic comedy. Tony Roberts plays Catherine's former boss. "Appealing stars in peak form . . . pure entertainment with style and élan" (L.A. Times) Adult situations, some nudity. (PG-1:43) May 30

The Manitou

Spectacular special effects enhance the horror of this macabre thriller. Susan Strasberg is the terrified victim through whom a 400-year-old demon seeks reincarnation. Co-stars Tony Curtis, Stella Stevens, Ann Sothern. Brief nudity, gore. (PG-1:44) May 1,6,10,14

Legends: Humphrey Bogart

He was screen hero, hell-raiser and dramatic actor. Bogart—the man behind the name! Legends traces his life in on- and off-screen footage that includes newsreel shots, family photos and scenes from his prolific and versatile motion picture career. May 4,8,13,16,19

International Diving & Water Festival

Divers from 13 nations—pros, amateurs, national champions and Olympians—will supply plenty of thrills at the Hall of Fame Meet. Supplying the laughs will be a "wet vaudeville act," comic divers and a race between the world's fastest swimmer and a clown. May 29

The Chosen

Kirk Douglas

A supernatural horror film. Kirk Douglas, head of a nuclear firm, fears his son, Simon Ward, may be the embodiment of evil when bizarre, terrifying events occur at the plant. "Harrowing tempo will leave audiences numb" (Boxoffice) Nudity, violence. (R-1:45) May 28

Convoy

Kris Kristofferson

Fireworks erupt when Kris Kristofferson, leader of a rebellious convoy of discontented truckers, runs into Ali MacGraw, a photo-journalist accidentally flung into the middle of the revolt. Lots of director Sam Peckinpah's kind of rough and tumble action: chases, crashes and slow-motion fights. Adult language. (PG-1:51) May 19,22,25

Soundtrack

In June: Brooks is bustin' out all over!

What is so rare as a day—or night—in June with one of Mel Brooks' uproarious comedies on your screen?

And even rarer: to see all three of madcap Mel's loonies spoofs—Silent Movie, Young Frankenstein and High Anxiety—in the first week!

You'll be off the wall as Mel and his Brooklings create their own brand of comedy and kid some old-time movie classics. Young Frankenstein, a frightfully funny salute to the great horror films of the '30s, stars Brooks favorite Gene Wilder as the grandson of the mad doctor, Peter Boyle as the monster —plus nutty Marty Feldman, Cloris Leachman and Madeline Kahn.

Howl at the takeoffs of Vertigo, Spellbound and other suspense thrillers of the Hitchcock variety in High Anxiety, the psycho-comedy hit. Mel himself stars with Harvey Korman, Cloris Leachman and Dick Van Patten. (Watch for that shower scene!)

Then there's Silent Movie, a mirthful tribute to the golden era of screen laughter —with Dom DeLuise, Bernadette Peters, Marty Feldman, the great Sid Caesar —and one of the craziest soundtracks ever to emerge from Hollywood.

Of course, all three frontal attacks on your funnybone will be shown unedited, uncensored and uninterrupted—just as screened in theaters. Betcha can't watch just one!
